

Anne Chicone

LCSW #21634

I have graduated from the University of Hawaii and have a master's degree in social work. I have many years of working in the social services and therapy arena. I work with people who have a life stressor and needs some support to work together to problem-solve and learn new skills that may help improve their life.