

Hope

Therapy Support Dog

Hope is an Australian Labradoodle that is full of love and energy. She is learning how to greet each client that walks through our office doors. She is currently in training to love you during your toughest time.