

Dianna Johnson

LMFT #123779

Dianna Johnson is a Licensed Marriage Family Therapist since 2021 and a Certified Addiction Specialist for 19 years working in mental health and substance abuse programs. Diana has the privilege to work with children, families, and individuals to promote hope, healing, and change through counseling. In addition, Dianna has certificates in Anger Management and Greif Counseling. Dianna completes annual and continuing education in the following areas of treatment: DBT, CBT, Trauma Informed Care, Client Centered, Internal Family Systems, and promotes motivation with hope in self and others.