

Kassie Taylor

AMFT #147239

Kassie Krueger Taylor is an Associate Marriage and Family Therapist who is passionate about providing a safe space for one to express emotions, thoughts, and life events. Kassie is determined to give the support needed in order to achieve goals. Kassie believes that every person is capable of reaching their full potential and she is willing to walk with each person during their journey so they can be and feel successful. Kassie specializes in working with teens and adults with issues related to depression, anger, anxiety, trauma, substance abuse and addiction, and intrapersonal and interpersonal relationships.

Supervised by: Vanessa Mullen LMFT #125278